

Ryland Strong Application

Due May 3, 2024

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in the Ryland Strong Scholarship.

The Ryland Strong Foundation Scholarship was established in honor of the late Ryland Harris, a noteworthy three-sport athlete who excelled in wrestling, football, and baseball. Ryland, who was a transfer student, had a strong connection to Brentsville District High School and knew, without hesitation, that it was the perfect school for him. The scholarship seeks to commemorate Ryland's sportsmanship and passion for Athletics and Turf Management by supporting deserving students who exude similar traits of dedication, perseverance, and excellence.

The Ryland Strong Foundation will be awarding a $1000 scholarship to an outstanding Student Athlete who is a team player in all aspects of life. (one time given scholarship)

To qualify for the Ryland Strong Foundation Scholarship,

1. Applicants must enroll in a higher education institution, including universities, colleges, or vocational schools.
2. Applicants must have a 3.0 GPA
3. Applicants must have letter in at least one Varsity Sport
4. Applicant must have personal qualities that reflect Ryland's admirable character, such as determination, perseverance, and a passionate pursuit of excellence. Please include a short 100-word or less essay explaining how you demonstrate these qualities.
5. Applicant must include a letter of recommendation with additional context and insight into the applicant's academic abilities, work ethic, character, and achievements. Letter of recommendation should be by a faculty member at Brentsville District High School
